

Singapore Chinatown Cultural Walking Tour: Temples, Trades & Traditions

📍 Thian Hock Keng Temple, 158 Telok Ayer St, Singapore 068613

Explore Singapore's historic Chinatown on this small-group guided walking tour led by a licensed local tourist guide.

This cultural walk takes you beyond typical sightseeing routes into the living heritage of Chinatown. Visit Thian Hock Keng Temple, stroll along Ann Siang Hill and walk through Pagoda Street while learning about the early migrant communities who helped shape Singapore's multicultural identity. This experience is conducted in small groups with a maximum of 6 participants to ensure a more personal and interactive tour.

Small Group Experience

All GoTruVibe tours are conducted in small groups with a maximum of 6 participants to ensure a more personal and relaxed experience.

Tour Facts

Group Size:

6

Duration:

3

Language:

English

Tour Type:

continuous

Tour Itinerary

Meeting Point : Thian Hock Keng Temple Main Entrance

Meeting Point Name

Thian Hock Keng Temple Main Entrance

Address

158 Telok Ayer Street
Singapore 068613

Meeting Instructions

Please meet your guide at the main entrance of Thian Hock Keng Temple along Telok Ayer Street.

Nearest MRT: Telok Ayer (Downtown Line), Exit B.

Your guide will be waiting 10 minutes before the scheduled start time and will be wearing a GoTruVibe name badge on a sage green lanyard.

Point 1 : Thian Hock Keng Temple

Introduction to early Chinese migrants and religious practices. Learn how seafarers gave thanks to Mazu after surviving long sea journeys.

Duration
20 Minutes

Point 2 : Ann Siang Hill

Walk along restored shophouses and understand the role of clan associations, coolie trade and early merchant networks.

Duration
30 Minutes

Point 3 : Pagoda Street

Explore traditional trades and street life in the past and how these streets evolved over time.

Duration
30 Minutes

Point 4 : Chinatown Heritage Centre (Pass By)

Brief explanation of migrant living conditions in the early 1900s.

Duration
10 Minutes

Point 5 : Chinatown (General Walk)

Stroll through Chinatown and learn about Singapore's migration history and community traditions that shaped modern Singapore.

Duration
63 Minutes